IN THE COCIAL WORLD

walt, Nels Swanson, John Flannery, Dave Mages and Jalier F. A. Anderson. The following presents were also received: Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Betters, half dosen silver knives and forks; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, half dosen silver knives and forks; Mrs. Robinson, half dosen silver spoons; John R. Debry, silver napkin rings; Annie Moses, water set; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Harris, table linen; H. W. Tayler, rocking chair; Dick Weatherby, Lou, Frank and James McLenen, rocking chair; John Hostler and Mrs. Harris, rocking chair; Mise Sarah Heyman, chair; Mr. and Mrs. Abe Heyman and Mrs. S. Moses, center table and searf; the Ash family, silver water pitcher, fruit stand and soup tureen; William Eddy, wine bottle and fruit plates; Mise Bertie Park, tidy; Mise Victoria Lamprey, fancy work.

DEER LODGE IN A SOCIAL WAY.

DEER LODGE, Oct. 6.-Mrs. M. Lower

DEER LODGE, Oct. 6.—Mrs. M. Lowry gave a very pleasant tea party at her home on Missouri avenue last Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. The ladies were invited in honor of Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Lowry's mother, who left Wednesday morning for Neihart, to visit her son and daughter who reside in that place. There were 18 ladies present and several others were invited but were unable to attend. A table was spread in the spacious dining room, which accommodated the guests and hostess, and, as the party was composed of the most congenial and appreciative ladies of town, a delightful afternoon was spent.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church gave a "circulating library" church gave a "circulating library" social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. White-hill, Friday evening, Oct. 5.

N. B. Davidson of Butte was a guest in town Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Bowden of Garrison are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John O'Reill this week.

S. E. Larable left last Wednesday for the East, and will spend the greater part of his time in Eentucky looking after his interests in that locality.

for Anaconda, preparatory to public school duty Monday, Oct. L.

Mesers. Phil H. Miller, James Hutton and C. J. Christ ensen were initiated into the A. O. U. W. lodge last Tuesday even-

Tuesday.

Nelson Bennet is in Deer Lodge at pres-

Hal Slemmons of Butte, and a graduat

Capt. James H. Mills spent last Saturday and Sunday with his family in Deer Lodge.

Mrs. H. S. Reed returned home from New York last Sunday, where she has been spending some months. Miss Edna accompanied.

John McMahon and James B. McMaster went to Anaconda last Tuesday to attend a meeting of the democratic central com-

Judge Brantly is holding court in Gran-

O. W. McConnell of Helena was a guest in Deer Lodge last Saturday.

J. Donlon of Drummond was in town Tuesday last on his way to the Springs.

John McMurray, editor of the Ana-conda Recorder, spent last Wednesday and Thursday in Deer Lodge.

Miss Marie Mitchell, who has been vis-iting friends and relatives in Butte the past two weeks, returned home last Mon-

O. E. Peppard of Missoula was in the city last Monday. Dr. Essig has moved into the Staten residence on North Main street.

H. A. McPhersan and J. McCallo spent last Sunday at Rock Creek lake.

W. D. Hyde, the registry agent for the felmville district, was in Deer Lodge last Autumn has come with its ripened grain. The farmers are cheerful over their abundant crops, yet realize more than ever the great need of an additional market for their surplus produce and are enthusiastic over the coming election, everyone ready to vote for Aua-

Mrs. C. D. Joslyn, president of the St.

Cecilia club, gave a musicale in honor of Mrs. D. J. McMillan, last Thursday evening, at her home on Rainbow avenue. Those invited were: Mrs. D. J. McMillan, Mrs. Whitehill, Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. Wiles, Mrs. R. T. Kennon, Mrs. Pock, Mrs. Prout, Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. R. G.

Humber, Mrs. J. H. Owings, Mrs. A. H. Mitchell, Mrs. H. A. Smurr, Mrs. D. S. Fotheringham, Mrs. Edward Scharnikow, Mrs. Phil H. Miller, Mrs. Gerdts, Mrs. J.

M. Boardman, Misses Roberta and Norma

Robertson, Miss Katie Kohrs, Miss Marie

Mitchell, Miss Mary Aspling, Miss Alma

conda for the capital.

sers. Sebarnikow and Fotheringham went over to the Mammoth mine last

ent on bus

pend the winter.

and Will Thornton have returned from the Riverside ranch.

W. P. Ferbis and family have returned tom Sheridan, where they have spent cost of the summer.

Miss Aller W.

Miss Alice Welch entertained a number of her young friends at the home of Mrs. M. J. Conneil on Friday evening.

Miss Edith Brownies's birthday was celebrated this afternoon by a party at which a large number of her little friends

Miss Emily Smith, eleter of T. C. Smith who has been visiting several weeks in Butte, has returned to her home in Dec Lodge on account of the siekness of her

The Presbyterian synod and presbytery will meet here next Wednesday. Clergy-men from all parts of the state will be

Mrs. A. A. Forbis, who has been the guest of Mrs. M. B. Brownles for several weeks, will visit Mrs. E. H. Irvine for the

Miss Evans, who is teaching in Ana-conda, passed through Butte Sunday on her way back from a summer spent in Tennessee and Georgia. She was accom-panied back to Butte by Mrs. Dr. Monroe, who has been absent from Butte for more

Mrs. Gaffney and Miss Kathleen Gaff-ney of Boulder have been guests at the Butte this week.

Frank Shaw left New York Tuesday or his way back to Butte. His wife is conval

Misses Lellah and Elsa Russell e tained a few friends at high five F

Jack Hoatson left Wednesday for his id hom: at Calumet, Mich. Mrs. Charles Kessler has removed from he Napton house to a residence at the orner of Jackson and Quarts streets.

this city.

Mrs. W. L. Lippincott entertained r pleasant party at high five Thursday

Mrs. W. W. McCrackin entertained de-ghtfully at a luncheon Thursday. Her uests were Mrs. Gillie, Mrs. Emerson, frs. Wynne, Mrs. Wormington, Mrs. loodale, Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. For-John Fisher, republican candidate clerk and recorder, is, for some reasunknown to his friends, out of town exiderable of late.

Dr. Mussilian

The annual election of officers of St. John's guild resulted as follows: Mrs. Hoyt, president; Mrs. Ferrell, vice president; Mrs. Moore, treasurer; Mrs. Hammond, secretary; Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Tallant, directrosses. The ladies of the guild are doing active and telling work in relieving needy families. A surprise birthday party was given to Mrs. C. A. Gwin, No. 228 South Montans street, by her neice and friends on Monday evening. A delicious supper was served at 11:20 o'clock. All had a very enjoyable time.

enjoyable time. Mrs. Ryan of Anaconda has been visit-ing for a week with Mrs. James R. Ander-son of Williamsburg.

The next regular meeting of the V. B. club will be held at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Connell on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Palmer entertained at dinner Monday, Oct. 1, Rt. Hon, Lord Swanssa and daughter, Hon. Violet Swanses and daughter, Hon. Violet Vivian. The guests were: Lord Swanses and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Connell, Dr. and Mrs. Freund. Mrs. W. McC. White, Jesse Lewisohn, Ray French.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Palmer entertained at dinner Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. W. McC. White, Dr. and Mrs. W. McC. White, Dr. and Mrs. W. Panad Ray Franch.

ite county this week.

Will Fisher, Paul Mitchell, Will Coleman and Milton Bennett left last Thursday for a trip to the Big Blackfoot coun-

Mr. and Mrs. W. McC. White, Dr. and Mrs. Freund, Ray French.

The Misses Strasburger entertained at a library party last week Mr. and Mrs. Hodgens, Mr. and Mrs. Hesiet, Mr. and Mrs. Hirshberg of Choteau, the Misses Crow, Baker, Busch, Hammond, Holmes, Levitt of Omaha, Sperling of Boseman, Mesers. Peterman, Morgan, Mount Dierks, Hoyt, McCurdy, Pearson, Dr. Hail, Dr. Wells.

Mrs. P. S. Sullivan and children de-arted Wednesday for California to spend

The West Side Social club held a very ful party Friday evening. The event of the season in church socials was the one given by the Ladies' Aid society of the Mountain View church on Friday evening. The church was gracefully decorated while the tables were perfect pictures of taste and beauty. The verdict of all present was that nothing superior to this social was ever witnessed in Butte. A very unique programme was rendered before the company partook of refreebments. The event of the season in churc

The fellow employes of R. T. White, foreman of the Butte & Boston smelter, on Friday presented him and his estimable bride with a token of their regard and friendship in the shape of an elaborate and most beautiful solid dinner set. The set is probably as handsome a one as can be found in the city, and Mr. and Mrs. White appreciate the present and the friendly feeling that made it.

The Homer club will meet in the art room of the Library building Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

An unusually pretty wedding was that of Sam Ash and Miss I da E. Betters, which was solemnized at 8 o'clock on Monday evening at No. 207 South Dakota street. Rev. Mr. St. Clair of the South Idaho street M. E. church performed the cere-mony, which was witnessed by a select party of relatives and intimate friends. Afterwards the party sat down to a sumptuous repast, which included all of the delicacies imaginable. Mr. Ash is a popular and efficient member of the Butte fire department, and his bride is an accomplished young lady who is very popular with all who have the pleasure of the ladies had enjoyed the music and con-

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Arthur E. Dickerman to Miss Mary Whallen in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Dickerman will be at home to their friends ricit friends.

Judge Bach, who has been visiting here, returned Monday to Helena.
William Muth of the temporary capital, who has been visiting in the Cataract City, has returned home.
Miss Edith Chadwick has gone to Helena to be treated for an affliction of the Rubert Cockrill has gone to Baltimore, Md., to attend a course in dentistry.

H. P. Cocker, president of the Sand Coulee Coal company, has returned to St. Paul after a few days' visit to Great Falls.

M. J. Sullivan and Fred School have returned from a visit to Salt Lake.

Charles U. Card, founder of the Mormon colony in the Northwest territory near Lethbridge, who has been in the Cataract Ity for a few days, returned home yes

J. F. McCielland and party bave re turned from their hunting trip.

B. H. Powers and wife have gone to the Boulder hot springs for a few weeks lox Elder park, a son.

Mice Kabaker has returned to St. Pr mission, where she is attending school

for Salt

John Courcy left yesterday for Salt Lake to visit relatives and friends.

George Stephenson, formerly county superintendent of schools, has gone to Woods, Ohio, to visit relatives and friends. Woods, Ohio, to visit relatives and friends.
The Kingwood (W. Va.) Argus gives the following account of the wedding of Rev.
Robert Ramsey, paster of the Presbyterian church in this city, who has been absent for several weeks on a vacation, but who is expected home again shortly, bringing with him a fair young brille from the sunny south:

"Another brilliant social event was celebrated in Kingwood last night, being the shrated in Kingwood last night, being the marriage of Miss Winifred Jackson, marriage of Miss Winifred Jackson, youngest daughter of Joseph Jackson, to Rev. Robert Ramsey, formerly paster of the Presbyterian church here, and now located in the West. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock p. m. at the home of the bride, and was performed by Rev. Fiannagan, paster of the Presbyterian church at Grafton. The wedding march was played by Miss Grace Martin. The bride were a white satin dress, white slippers and gloves and carried a beautiful bouquet of flowers, and the groom wore the conventional black. The bridesmaid was Miss Letitia Jackson, cousin of the bride, and the 'best man,' Professor Kerewell of Lincoln university, Pennsylvania. After the occumony and the congratulations from a large party of invited guests, elegant refreshments were served to all. The bride received many handsome and valuable presents. The happy couple will remain here a week and then go to their future home at Great Falls, Mont. About 70 guests were present, mostly from town. Those from a distance were Professor Kerswell of Pennsylvania, Prof. F. B. Trotter of Buckhannon, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Lassell and Misses Woods and Berkley of Morgantown." and schoolmates in town last Sunday.

Bishop Brewer has an appointment to preach in St. James' church in this city, Sunday, Oct. 14, morning and evening.

Miss Bacon of Drummond is visiting Mrs. Lyons of this city and will leave in a short time for Kentucky, where she will Morgantown."

Miss Annie Cleveland of the Cascade steam laundry has gone to Norway on a visit to relatives.

Col. W. C. Plummer and daughter, Miss Beula, arrived in the city Thursday from Minot, N. D. They are the guests of Mrs. T. D. Wright and will make this their permanent home.

Last Tuesday evening while Thomas H.

Neely was up town on business end his wife was at the home of one of their neighbors, about 50 people, friends and neighbors, gathered at their home on Fifth avenue south. On returning home Mr. Neely and his good wife were, of course, very much surprise at finding so many callers. The matter was explained, however, by reminding them that on Oct.
3, 1863, a wedding was celebrated at Scia, Ohio, in which they acted a most prominent part, and that the friends had gathered to see how faithful they had kept the vows then taken, and to wish them happiness and prosperity through the remainder of their life's journey. After the amiable host and hostess had recovered from their surprise, they proceeded to make the evening a pleasant one for the assembled friends, in which they were eminently successful. After ample refreehments had been served, approprite remarks were made by Rev. W. W. Van Orsdell and Rev. F. A. Riggan, at the close of which an elegant rug and a handsome picture was presented to them, which will remind them that they have a Last Tuesday evening while Thomas H. some picture was presented to them, which will remind them that they have a large circle of friends in Great Falls who the good things of life.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. John McKay of Third street south, a son.

LIFE IN LIV NOSTON.

LIVINGSTON, Oct. 6.-The local lodge of Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen elected the following officers for the ensuing term at the regular meeting held at K. of P. master; C. A. Quinlisk, vice master; Sam Wood, past master; H. T. Thompson, re-

The event occurred last Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Me

Mrs. H. J. Welcott entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her residence last Saturday with an afternoon

A party of Livingston people, composed Mrs. A. W. Miles and children, I Herbert Miles, Mrs. J. S. Thompson Mrs. E. J. Neebit and daughter, Mac, for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the and winter.

Charles A. Burg, ex-register of the Lewistown land office, but now engaged in business in this city, has removed his family to Livingston. Mrs. Burg and children arrived from Fergus county today, after having spent a week at Hunter's Hot Springs, and are now pleasantly demiciled in Mr. Burg's residence on Second atreet.

Mrs. S. M. and Miss Mary Neely have turned to their home in Minneapoli after an extended visit with Mrs. Stebbin

P. H. Nettleton, of the Crevice Mo iain Mining and Milling company, turned the first of the week from a b turned the first of the week from a bus ness visit to the temporary capital.

Mrs. R. A. Rice, the Myersburg shee queen, was in the city Monday.

Miss Tessie Healy of Bossman is in the city on a visit with her sister, Mrs. John Hogan.

W. J. Anderson, president of the Livingston Water Works company, is back from a visit of several months with relatives and friends in England.

Editor Thomas J. Bouton of the Livingston Herald, returned Sunday from a brief business visit to Helena.

James Esown came ever from Boseman Thursday to witness the production of "Killarsey" at the opera house by that versatile setress, Miss Katie Emmett.

Attorney A. P. Stark has been in attendance upon the district court at Billings the past week.

Al Lee and Dave Kennedy are back

Al Lee and Dave Kennedy are back from the Eastern Montana races. George A. Loasby and A. Grandy were in the city from McLeod the first of the John M. Kay, superintendent of schools for Gallatin county, was over from Bose-man Tuesday. Tom Healy and Will Conley of Bose-man were in the city Thursday, having accompanied their families this far on their way to a visit in the East.

Mrs. James Fanning returned last bun-day from an extended visit with New York

IN HELENA.

HELENA, Oct. 6.—Mrs. B. Platt Carpenter's home was crowded with visitors from 8 until 6 o'clock on Thursday on the cocasion of her reception. The large dining-room was aglow with yellow golden red and the rich autumn colors in wood-vine and sweet brier, which are just turning into the most fascinating reds, every leaf a brilliant tint of its own. The dining room was hung with sweet peas and ing room was bung with sweet peas and every available corner was filled with roses and baskets of them. The table had overy available corner was filled with reces and baskets of them. The table had a large centerpiece of exquisite roses, American beauties, La France and Mermett. Mrs. Carpenter wore a gown of pale gray silk, trimmed in lace. Those receiving with her were: Miss Carpenter, in costume of dotted Swiss with sleeves and sash of rose-leaf green moire silk; Mrs. J. E. Rickards, in tollet of black silk and lace; Mrs. John T. Murphy, gown of black lace; Mrs. John T. Murphy, gown of black lace; Mrs. S. T. Hauser, dress of electric blue silk trimmed in black lace insertine and bodice of black; Mrs. J. K. Toole, gown of silver grey silk with velvet belt and trimming; Mrs. Samuel Word, dress of pale blue silk and crope trimmed in lace; Mrs. G. F. Copa, dress of slate-colored silk, trimmed in yellow silk; Mrs. D. A. Cory, gown of black lace, trimmed in color. In the dining room Mrs. William H. Hunt, Mrs. Joseph Davis and Mrs. Horace Buck presided and poured coffee, tea and chocolate. Among those who accepted invitations were Mesdames Tatem, C. Cannon, Lyman, R. Fisk, Clark, McConnell, Botkin, H. Bach, Harris, Holter, Sanders, Brewer, F. Cannon, Pleasants, Babcock, D'Acheul, Hedges, Sharpe, Hickman, Rumley, Chadwick, Wade, Woolman, Hunter, DeWitt, J. Sanders, Bullard, S. Jones, James Walker, O'Connor, Traey, Hunter, DeWitt, J. Sanders, Bullard, S. Jones, James Walker, O'Connor, Tracy, Clements, Eaton, Newman, Carter, O. Bradford, D. Bradford, Cox, Cuthbert, Ellis, Hill, Blake, Brown, Greenfield, Burke, Franklin, Ashby, Cullen, Flowerce, Snow, Johnson, B. Brown, Sands, Gans, Craven, Sligh, Davenport, Pope, Foote, Sizer, Pyle, J. Luke, H. Luke, Lots, O. McConnell, Kennett, Cole, Child, Bryan, Potte, Ellis, Harrison, Langley, L. Hersh-field, Kleinschmidt, Steele, Mann, Sieben, Perkins, Bickett, Curtains, Curtis: the Misses Dean, Davenport, Barnaby, Mc-Connell, Botkin, Straughn, Rosenbaum, Franklin, Murphy, Mears, Hickman, Child, Sharpe, Cruse, Maysomel, Hedges, Burke, Coryeli, Hoyt, Murphy, Blake and Miller.

Mrs. Barnard Brown and Miss Miller gave a card party on Thursday evening which was in every way a success. Hearts was the game and was interesting to the and. The prizes were very beautiful, and the fortunate winners were Miss Blake, Mr. Prosser and Mr. McPhee. Those attending were: The Misses Straughn, Car-penter, McConnell, Davenport, Botkin,

Biake, Franklin, Rosenbaum, N. Biake, C. Cope, Wickham; Mesers. N. Helter, Arneld, Dr. Barbour, L. Sanders, Carpen-ter, McPhee, Proceer, Meyendorff, J. Mc-Phee, Forguson, Penwell, Zocckier, Met-

The distinguished guests at the Helena, Lord Swansea Singleton and Hon. Violet Vivian Singleton, have been much interested in visiting Helena's preminent buildings. They were surprised at the enormous proportions and beauty of architecture of the Broadwater plunge, and were pleased with a morning spent in the assay office. Life in the Rocky mountains is not as primitive as they had supposed.

E. G. Maelay spent Wednesday and Thursday in Helena.

Mrs. E. W. Weirick has been visiting friends in Helena since Monday and incidentally superintending the moving of the household furniture to Great Fails. She delighted the audience with two recitations at the church entertainment on Tuesday night.

Tuesday night.

T. A. Marlowe of the Montana National bank returned Tuesday from his trip to the National park, where he spent a week.

Judge Knowles came in on Monday from Missouls.

Missoula.

Albert Raleigh and his cousin, Miss Howard, left Tuesday for the east.

Gen. Lew Wallace will reach Helena Monday and deliver his lecture for the benefit of Wadsworth post on Monday night. It is feared that the opera house will scarcely hold all who want to hear the author of "Ben Hur."

A large class attended, on Wednesd evening, at St. Peter's church to study to first chapter of St. Luke, under the lead-ship of the new rector, Rev. Mr. Love.

ship of the new rector, Rev. Mr. Love.

The entertainment on Monday night by the Catholic Knights was crowded to suffocation. Every aisle was filled with people who could not get seats. Mrs. J. K. Toole, Mrs. Laselle and Miss Rosenbaum sang delightfully some difficult music. Mrs. T. H. Carter and Miss O'Neil added much with their numbers on the harp, and Mr. Walker rendered an excellent piece on the flute. Mr. Moriarity gave a comic song which brought down the house. Dr. C. B. Miller drew the gold watch, the first gift. Aret gift.

C. C. Broadwater and party left for Fort shooting.

Miss Hopper of the Central school has been seriously ill for a week.

The call for a meeting on Friday at the Bailey block of all the women of Helena, brought out a large and enthusiastic army of Helena's foremost ladies. When such women as Meedames Charles Cannon, Cornelius Hedges, J. H. Harris, W. G. Bailey, D. Wade, R. Fisk and W. F. Sanders call a meeting, there is a very senses.

Governor Richards returned from the cast Thursday evening.

Honry Loomia, son of the late Professor Loomis of Yale college, is visiting Col. W.

Two sisters of the Ursuline order, direct from Paris, are stopping in Helena for a day or two on their way to St. Peter's mis-his injuries received at Fort Keegh a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Cassedy returned from Hilgers, Thursday, where they have been hunting and fishing for a week. Grouse, duck and mountain sheep made the variety of game they captured.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Bryan will remain in Montana instead of going to Tennessee as they had expected, to spend the winter.

Mrs. P. O. Brewster left for Denver, Wednesday neces.

Wednesday noon.

Miss Amy Rosenbaum entertained some friends at luncheon, quite informally, Friday, in honor of Miss Straughn.

Miss King and her father, with Miss Potter, leave for Los Angeles the latter part of this week, to remain the winter in California.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Wells have rented their home in Lenox for the winter, and have taken rooms with Mrs. Norris on Fifth avenue. Mrs. Wells will leave soon for Salt Lake to spend the winter there. Mrs. C. W. Cannon returned from Butte

Saturday, where she has been visiting the family of W. A. Clark. Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Mrs. J. E. Crosby and

R. M. Atwater ou Oct. 26 in the old church at Chelses

The "informal" dancing party which the young men gave on Saturday evening last, after the close of Miss Blaine's danclast, after the close of Miss Blaine's dancing class, was a genuine pleasure. It is understood that these parties will occur very frequently while Miss Blaine has her dancing school, and it is one of the features of her evenings. A large number of the society people will join Miss Blaine's class this winter. Some of the chaperones present last Saturday were: Mesdames D. A. Floweres, Oscar Bradford, T. C. Power, A. C. Botkin, W. E. Cullen, Charles Dahler, R. E. Fisk. Of the young present present were noticed the Misses people present were noticed the Misses Davenport, Franklin, McConnell, Straughn Carpenter, Botkin, Rosenbaum, Child, N. Rosenbaum, Cory, Ashby, Crutcher, Howard, Raleigh, Sigh, N. Kleinschmidt, Bake, Sanders, F. Child, King, Hoyt, Atchison, and Messrs. Power, N. Holter, J. McPhee, Prosser, W. Prosser, King, Hench, Hanna, Ferguson, C. Word, L.

Word, Camacher, Yaeger, Barbour,. The reception in the church parlors for the new pastor of the Christian church was well attendeded on Friday evening, and Mr. Streator must have felt himself cordially welcomed.

THE BITTER ROOT. It Is the Choice of the People as Montana's Floral Emblem.

Special Correspondence of the Standard BOZEMAN, Oct. 6,-There are but few eople in the state who have not been much interested in the efforts of the Floral Emblem society toward the gaining of a vote of the people for the choice of a state floral emblem. The active work of this society was brought to a close on Wednesday, when the votes which have lation of the county, the variety or a flora, etc.

In undertaking this work the stateman, Mrs. Adderson and her assistants in the different counties, took upsthermselves a task which consumed great deal of time, as well as being qui an expense to each in the carrying on the work in their respective counties. The chairmen of the work in the difference counties was as follows:

Respected. Mrs. Frank Eist, Differ.

saverboad—Mrs. Frank Eliel, Dillen. uster—Mrs. J. E. Light, Miles City. oor Lodge—Mrs. L. A. King, Anacon lathead—Mrs. J. J. Kennedy, Ot

following:	1	160
Creaty.	Biller Book	Syesing Trimeson	WH4 Boss	Bestlering Votes
Beaverhead Custer Deer Lodge Flathead Fergus Gallatin Jeffersen Lewis and Clarke Madison Meagher Missoula Park Silver Bow Ravaill Yellowstone	263 400 344 701 283 400 641 1700 608 85	887 :00 :488 :8º1 :	101 180 180 180 180 180 180 180 180 180	TRKE BEEFERS: 88.

Totals..... 3621 787 688 781 HATTIE M. TRAPEAG

HATTIE M. TRAPEAGE.

W. T. SHAW.
P. C. WAITE.

This gives the Bitter Root as the choice of the people of Montana for their state floral emblem, it having received a manjority of 1,388 over all votes cast.

The next in order after the Bitter root-primrose and wild rose in number of votes received were: White elements Macaetus M. golden rod S., cale chortus M and buttereup 38.

There were 23 different flowers voted for, seven of these having but one vote cash, and a few votes were received which were cast by humorously inclined individuals, one such being for the "barmerock" and another for the "rutahaga."

A report of the society's work will be sent to the legislature for its consideration, and the request that the people's choice be legalized, after which the choice of the people being accepted, the work of the Montana Floral Emblem society will be ended.

A FALL PREDICTION. When the votes are cast for Capital, Away late in the fall,

The opium joints of Helena Will answer to the call. Then forth will march the Moon Eyes

Then forth will march the Most Of that Celestial town,
In company with High Society
For which the town's renown
Then to the polis they'll hurry
And vote each Chinaman,
Who'll vote allee samee
Like a Melicance mau.
But when election's over,
The returns all gathered in,
Sad hearts will reign in Hostor

Fad hearts will reign in Hog she can't in.

—Billings Times. MISUNDERSTANDING.

He was in love, profoundly so; It pierced him through and through; And he was pleased to hear her say That she was that way, too. He popped the question to her, straight; She backed and filled and ran;

And wrote to say she was in love,
But with another man.

—Detroit Free Press. Generally Speaking. "Woman has her say, after all."
"Generally speaking."
—Detroit True